COURSE OVERVIEW

Level 4 EQA Award in External Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practice (RQF) is a nationally recognised qualification

This course includes a solid foundation in External Quality Assurance. It also covers how to manage and document EQA information.

This qualification will open the door to new employment and career opportunities. You will be confident in showcasing your skills, knowledge of EQA processes.

As a theory-only course, you won't need to carry out any practical activities to complete it, making the course ideal for you if you don't currently have any centres or IQAs to work with.

When you finish the course successfully you will be awarded the nationally recognised qualification by Qualifications Network UK.

ASSESSMENT

You'll be allocated a named tutor from our team, who will be your guide and support for that personal touch. They will be your assessor - so there's no need to find your own qualified assessor or witness, we handle everything.

Before you start anything you'll be invited to have a one to one talk with your tutor to set you off on the right track. The course is a single, theory based unit. For this you'll need to answer a series of straightforward questions on our portal, which has video lessons and guides for you.

You'll be supported throughout by your tutor who will provide guidance and feedback to help you.
